The Truman Show - April 13, 2026, 10:28 am

The government can wirelessly read your heartbeats, and the exact emotion, and intentions behind them. Basically meaning your mind can be read.

If you think about how your heartbeat is felt with understanding, the government can know exactly what that is, for exactly the way you feel it.

So; the government can easily determine whether you are lying, or telling the truth, wirelessly, simply by asking you a question, and without you answering any words; your heart will respond, and they can know whatever truth you know.

Here's the key; we are supposed to be Pure/Jesus humans, and the heart, when we are accused, will go into defence mode, which is basically Us. Whom we truly are; our pure self (in truth) -- so long as your heart is Pure, you're probably protected by the true governments whom run this world, so long as you don't surrender/give up/plead guilty.

The world is corrupt and they don't want this technology/science known/spoken about, because there's then a threat to THEM.

I just want my money.

Truth; for Us, real humans, pure, innocent, whatever you are that makes you not like "them"/the demons of the world; Understand that accepting any lies this world makes you perceive as truth/good/love/idolized, like from the media, films, TV, music, etc, when you accept these, and worse; agree with them, you are in an impure state, and you've potentially lost God/truth. Religion is Higher truth than this entire world; plus Jesus' truth, no matter if you're religious or not, IS God, for those whom have faith in Him, and have pure hearts because of their belief/knowledge. Some people fail to ever know what a pure heart/mind is; because they are so defiled, and refuse to seek Jesus for forgiveness. That is truth. For Us, accepting any kind of impurity, gives us demons, that keep us stupid/loving/humble FOR the Devil/lies/untruth. ACCEPTING impurities in ourself truly makes us impure, and fall out of agreement with God. The world shouldn't have evolved like this, but it has. We accept the world as it is because we know no better. But through the truth of God, and the truths that even atheists can know, through love, and happiness, we know that the world should not be like this, we're just not people that feel like we can actually make a difference. Do not accept the Devil. Accepting the Devil, even if it makes you happy, or laugh, will GIVE you the Devil, and change your truth into a demon. Reality has not changed. I have done nothing to change the reality of you, or celebrities, or government people, like the police. The truth; you are corrupt, and unless you see my words, and agree with them, through understanding; you are entirely corrupt, and lost from God, because of your agreement with the Devil. Again; sometimes the Devil/stupidity/lies/humbleness can make us happy, but that's actually when it's most dangerous. Feeling joy because of evil/stupidity/lies, or laughing at evil/stupidity/lies, is very dangerous, and changes your truth. Our sin does not go away. Everything we PERCEIVE matters. Everything. Invite Jesus Christ into your heart, and keep it pure, advancing in truth; and becoming a Spiritual being, that is learning as a human, and is loved by God because of your intelligence, and choices. Please

God by living in truth, seeking the truth, rejecting lies, and being true. God knows you for what you are. There's no point in being fake, other than when you first perceive Jesus Christ; because your faith/belief/knowledge hasn't advanced so much yet, it's normal to KNOW "How am I worthy of God/Pure love"? That's true. You should become faithful in Jesus Christ, and teach your children to live in truth. They do not have your sin; and if you understand, I'm not lying to you when I say everything we perceive matters. And lots of you have been very impure, and stupid, and evil, and you should know better. Live in truth; always. Don't even lie to the Devil; you kill him with truth. Jesus Christ. The God whom forgives. Remember; this world should not have evolved like this, it's been the Devil that has given most of the world demons, that they defend; as their truth. That's messed up, and I can only encourage all of you to live under God, in truth, and do not conform to the evil world, and all the evil people in it. Again; kill the Devil by speaking truth over him, not lies. I'm not a Prophet. Humans don't know what they could be; because they simply haven't ever known themselves, or anyone else, to be a true person. We have evolved with war, while gays and transgenders are being glorified in love. Child sex is now being normalized; the world is heading for war, and destruction, unless you stand up to the Devil, and speak the truth. Remember you are responsible for your own soul, and God truly knows everything. Humans, I'm here, and you know me, and you know that as long as you haven't killed/hurt a CHILD or BABY, I can understand, forgive, and love you. That's why I'm in the position to be your King, like no other King this world has ever seen, since Jesus Christ. Love yourselves, and do not be against me, nor label me the Devil. It is God who made me King. And truly; because of my science, this humans is the actual-best human in the world, that has Higher truth than any liar/demon/Devil. Actual-truth, compared to actual lies. Remember, even when God is weak, He is far stronger than the Devil. I have been blessed for not being the Devil. It's true. I'm not. And I pray you understand this, for your own good, before you can't, and it's too late, and this really was just the human race trying to "create the Devil" to support the current generation of scum/celebrities, etc. I pray you see the light, and know God has been able to use me, and that I am King, and it would be a good thing; if you would accept the truth, that you actually-know, that I am not the Devil, and they are self-destructing, labelling me that, because they've already done so much to me, while I've been in my home, unaware, all my life. Does that make sense? We need new governments, new celebrities, and change. The people can be more than happy, in ways that are true, and everlasting. Purifying, and intelligent. We should want each other to be intelligent, it's part of human evolution. However with the gays at the top of this world, they only want to keep you dumb, and entirely unaware, that God, is the most important truth, and the only truth. This world is made up like a circus, and they plan on bombing you all soon. Know your place; and know mine. I'm in a position God can use; you're in the position to be stupid, powerless, impure, and tell lies. Deceive for the wonderful powers that are. Never forget; I am true, and that's more than I can say about ANYONE I have ever perceived in this world. Don't waste your time with me, humans.

Just weed, don't worry.

If you're suggesting the people will go crazy -- they won't, since they know the truth directly from Me. The King. If we don't introduce humans to the truth of our scientific capabilities, we will never get to.

HRV brings us together. Let's fight for a future TOGETHER, in TRUTH. Why would you want anything else but the truth? :]

They recently found a lost US airman by detecting his heartbeat from the sky, so that's probably 1 reason this topic is coming up. I don't know about all this "reading your mind" stuff, but being able to read someone's heartbeat and figure out if they are active, idle, anxious, etc is definitely possible. We can do it from drones

It's called project Ghost Murmur

We / the USA is using technology that picks up on electromagnetic signals using quantum technology with server-side filtering to separate heart rates from other sensor data.

It's not bullshit 100%, it's just OP maybe jumping ahead a little bit, or making some assumptions... but the tech to detect your heart rate from the sky is 100% already working and being used.

CortanaZ - April 13, 2026, 1:27 pm

i think you've lost it a bit

NotJinx - April 13, 2026, 5:51 pm

Can they read the exact emotion I feel when I see a 1000-word post with no paragraphs? Because my heart is definitely not 'pure' right now.

Yeah, I know the government can wirelessly monitor your heart beats and can read your emotions. It's just an advancement on the lie detector machine. It's all about the speed of the beats and vibrations.

Ever had a person walk into the room and not smile or anything but you can feel this happy energy. Like a bubbly person walks into the room it changes the mood of everyone from being sad or depressed to feelin happy and excited but you don't know why but noticed this bubbly person walks in and you immediately have that feeling. It's a similar concept with what you're talkin about. The heart beats and there's an energy that gets emitted a vibration that we all pick up before we even see the persons face or social cues. The heart has spiritual energy fields and so does the brain. They can emit these energies around the person and can influence the emotions around people before they pick up on any physical social cues.
