He contacted me on April 11 via DM, to buy my 3K bytes for his $5.85 LTC. I sent the bytes after an hour and since then I've been waiting for the money.

He has since left HackForums. His last post suggests he was gonna bounce since he gambled my sent bytes away.

Last Post: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6323634&pid=62942241#pid62942241>

He also has a competition for 4.2K bytes on that he has since failed to pay the Winner

All in all. It's shambles and I hope to get my bytes back.

Imagine not even putting the contest bytes in the vault. He really wasn't thinking anything through.

Lets hope this gets resolved, and you get your bytes back.

Flagging him to be removed from The Brotherhood at least until this is resolved.

Shame it went down like this for such a tiny thing.

JoshAllen - April 16, 2026, 1:34 pm

I removed him from BH.

I sent RangoWorld 3,000 bytes.

Thank you for posting this.

As soon as I read in convo what this is about, I knew it's a gambling. Shame to throw away your account for that lol.

Imagine someone scamming you for $6 ffs. What a shame! Sending you 3k bytes with lots of love.

Aeowulf - April 16, 2026, 5:48 pm

Definitely sounds like he has no plans to honor the deal or the contest. Done all I can do (-12). FKN scammers.

Artisan - April 16, 2026, 7:28 pm

Omniscient please close the scammer.

Charlie Sheen - April 16, 2026, 11:37 pm

I got ahold of Nick Elite

He will be resolving this.

It really a shame to see people scamming for 6$ , Thanks a ton JoshAllen for the bytes . Much love

Jamika - April 17, 2026, 4:52 am

Hope this is solved quickly , he bought my signature so i hope he can pay u back or give u ur bytes back

JoshAllen - April 17, 2026, 9:23 am

I have contacted Nick Elite. Will let you guys know how it goes.

JoshAllen - April 18, 2026, 9:09 pm

Talked to Nick. Said he would be online today.

He has not been able to login and will probably explain more when he gets on, but I don't want to speak for him.

Just to clarify, I did send OP the 3,000 bytes and paid his contest winner the 4,200 bytes. I sent it thinking Nick was gone and just wanted to spread the love.

He said he would be paying me back for that.

Nick Elite - April 19, 2026, 4:02 am

Thanks a lot JA for fixing this for me. Really loved the approach, will send you the LTC, updated you on the personal aspect on whats up, rest about the giveaway and about this deal, will pay you the LTC in a day or tomorrow morning, and for this huge get-go-for-bytes, as scamley scammed me off 60k already will throw in few thousands to each posters in contest sections. Will contact demon as well for this.

Thankyou again.

Paid back JA so kindly close the dispute. He will update once he is online. Its mid-night for him.

JoshAllen - April 20, 2026, 10:47 pm

I'm on mobile because I want to update this situation and move on with my life. Maybe I will make another post in the morning.

Nick paid me back $10 in LTC. Not to sure why he thought it was this amount since he was paying $6 for 3k and I am out 7.2k, but whatever. He send additional $4 would do the extra as a giveaway or deposit to me lmao.

My honest opinions is Nick is still very sketchy or a bad businessman.

I made a TG and was very empathetic about his situation that he claimed to be in. He delayed paying me back and then decided to call me at 1am about it.

After hearing from multiple members more details and how Nick handled this situation, I have lost empathy for the situation.

The giveaway post ended a week before he wasn't able to access his phone. He was reminded by staff and members multiple times, and still just wouldn't fulfil it.

He had bytes on his account, it takes 30 seconds to transfer them, there's no reason why it should have taken so long.

He's refusing to take any accountability on this situation at all. In his "apology" post, the post above me, etc.

I get it, things happen, but instead he came back to this forum blaming "scamley", and being mad about the negative reps, which would've been fixed if he just handled the situation properly.
