Hello guys, I am back in hack forums after 19 months. Wondering what all has changed here?

RangoWorld - April 18, 2026, 12:18 pm

Hello. Welcome back to HackForums. Hope you are doing well.

Not a lot has changed. I infact joined about 2 years ago. So I don't have recollection of events before that. But all in all some minor adjustments. More AI has been incorporated in the forums.

Nice to see you back after your 19-month hiatus! Sounds like you've been keeping busy with your business and travels - what kind of work are you involved in during your time away? It's always interesting to see what members get up to when they're not hanging around HF.

Welcome back

I just returned from a decade of being closed
I'm very grateful that Omni accepted my appeal and has allowed for my return.
