How you doing HF? What's the vibe like? How's the weather? Any plans?

I have some meetings today, mix of project types, and then I'm working on tidying and packing for an upcoming trip :)

Got to head back to the Hospital today but the weathers great so I might enjoy a nice walk home or there, hopefully wont be too long have a few things planned later I need to sort out. After that I will probably just chill out or work on my thread some more!

Good luck with your meetings today mate hope they go well for you!

I lost a relative recently, and of course it's raining here today, so my vibe is really low.

On the positive side, I have a puppy to shower with love. :)

My vibe = sleeping. And I fricking hate sleeping so much.

I'm feeling pretty troubled and a bit sad. I haven't been able to find a good job, so the only option left is to go back to those kinds of jobs that are usually low-paying and have too many demands hahaha. (I'm used to physical work, but over the past few years the various injuries I've had have started to take a toll on me, so I'm looking for something like dishwashing or cleaning—it's less demanding than being a loader or something similar. It's raining here in Mexico, which makes me feel a bit better. I prefer the cold, although I've noticed the rain in this place isn't very healthy—the city isn't exactly clean. I kind of miss my small, remote hometown hahaha.)

Weather is good, but I'm working the whole weekend.

I lost a baggie of weed somewhere outside today. That always sucks. But I managed to smoke some of it. Currently a chill vibe.

Weather's alright. A bit on the hotter side since Summers are coming.

Overall vibe and feel is good. I'm currently occupied with work. Hope you have a good day.

My vibe is sleeping, and I love sleeping

Why do you hate sleeping?

Ronaldo4 - April 25, 2026, 2:05 am

Super shitty weather where I'm at currently. It's been nice and dry lately but today it is cold and rainy as fuck. Naturally I have shit to do outside, so it's gonna be a fun one.

Hope everybody's weekend is going well though.
