Mercury - April 26, 2026, 6:54 am

Good morning, I'd like to enter this.

I believe that I should be upgraded to Ub3r for a couple different reasons. I've been around for a long time now and I make it a point to contribute high quality posts and threads as much as possible. I have stellar marketplace ratings and what I consider to be just a decent reputation overall. I've upgraded to Ub3r a few times over the years but it always lapses; I miss having the option for a permanent upgrade so this is fantastic but I'm a little short on cash at the moment. I sold 14K bytes to DemonAsylum last night to offset some of the cost with the intention of upgrading myself but it would be super helpful in regards to where I'm currently at in life to have a hookup.

My favorite aspect of Hackforums would be all of the history behind it and how much progress it has made over the years. I've seen alot of very interesting things here and I've seen alot of great people come and go. I guess truly, it would more so be the community itself as a whole that I love. I've grown to really enjoy the Linux section, as dead as it can be sometimes so I'm trying to come up with engaging ideas that will help revive it a bit. I still have alot to learn though so it is a process.

Thank you for the opportunity. If you have any further questions about me, don't hesitate to ask.

I would like to have a permanent Ub3r upgrade.

I was lucky enough that a couple members here were kind enough back when I joined in to help me get my first Ub3r year upgrade. I assured them that I won't let their gift down and would try to become a permanent part of this community. Fast forward to now and I can't imagine a day without checking in HF.

I just recently got to a posts milestone and I like to think that this is only my beginning with the community relatively speaking. Specially compared to some old folks here.

Just like my first upgrade was the reason that committed me to the forum. I think having a permanent upgrade would commit me further.

My favorite thing about HF is the community. But not just in an abstract sense but the way specifically people here are willing to help and even have your back in certain situations. It was really surprising to me back in 2023-24 when I joined the forum that there still exist a community where out of nowhere a genuine encouragement, help or an advice would arrive. That also in my opinion is what makes HF special.

Also thanks for doing this giveaway. I hope many new members use this opportunity.

I would love to get a permanent L33t upgrade. The reason for which I would like to get upgraded is because I can't get an upgrade myself right now and I would love to have better appearance in the forum.

My favourite thing about the forum is that I can interact in different threads and have interesting conversations with other members. I hope I will be able to build solid friendships in the forum and learn a lot of new stuff. I really appreciate the chance you are giving to us, and if you choose me I will not let you down :)

Thank you for allowing members an opportunity to get upgrade through your generous contribution.

1. Why should I choose you for the upgrade?

I think anyone who is eager to contribute and help new members onboard the forum or generally guide people online for the better shall be considered for an upgrade. I try to follow these simple principles in online and IRL.

2. What is your favorite thing about Hack Forums?

I like the diversity of people and they skill sets people bring to the forums which makes it a vibrant and interesting place to explore.

A few solid entries so far, let's get some more submissions, only a few days left!

Happy Birthday Hackforum another great contest thank you Cap .

1. Why should I choose you for the upgrade?

Honestly I would put the Ub3er Upgrade to genuine use rather than just letting it sit as a badge on my profile. I am actively building my presence on the forum, I have legitimate marketplace threads running and I'm here to contribute long-term to the growth of this great community. I have strong background in Cybersecurity and i enjoy sharing knowledge, helping newer members navigate technical questions and find their footing.

2. What is your favorite thing about Hack Forums?

I have 3 Spot-on the forum that i keep coming back to every time , First is the Hack Section its a goldmine the AI topics are always currnt and relevant. Secondly Convo section of the forum holds a special place for me Some of the best interactions I've had on this forum happened in there. Good laughs, genuine discussions, and I've actually made some solid friends through it. And thirdly the marketplace where i do carry out my business.

Thank you OP and God bless HF, Happy Birthday to the great community.

Thank you OP here is my entry.

I'm an active member who genuinely contribute to thread discussion around the forum, helps others where I can and doesn't just lurk around.I plan to be around long time and also put tutorials out to help the community grows in knowledge.

My favorite thing about HackForum is the knowledge sharing and the good people in the Convo section as well. The forum covers a lot from the lounge, to marketplace, and to pet talks, to technology topics it covers all for me

Putting in for the permanent Uber sir.

Stanley - April 29, 2026, 3:32 pm

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. The OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.

Thanks,
Stanley

Kindly consider this entry for Ub3r upgrade.

I've been on HF since the past 15 years, and although I don't contribute as much as I used to (because of family and stuff), I plan on staying on this forum and contribute wherever I can. I love, how this forum has changed since the early days, but it feels no different for some reason. Honestly, all credit to Omni, who keeps this site running with the same level of discipline for the past 19 years. Thank you for hosting this contest.

Cap - April 30, 2026, 9:57 pm

Congratulations to the winners!
