Thread: Anyone here listen to Grime?

Long time user, but wanting to become active again! I used the search tool to search HF and the music section, but can't find any mention of it.

I've been a huge fan of Grime music since I was around 15 and continuously still listen to it! If no one has heard of it before, I've put together a short list below of some more of the notable examples. Always happy to discuss it if anyone wants any more examples :)

Lol, yeah definitely not Grimes. Last I heard of her was when she messed up her DJ set.
