Share what lane you love to play and what rank you are.

I'm personally ADC main, but I get rekt recently so I switched to Jungler. I'm sitting at G2 rn, trying to get to Plat.

I peaked at Emerald 3, and play top lane Nasus.

Proxy singed is so fun. 0/10 20th minute enemy inhib down with you having 300 cs ^^

I've been playing jungle since season 4... it's pretty fun.

Yeah jungle is fun and useful lane to carry your games.

Liked top with Singed or Nasus, also occasionally played Malphite(good against ranged tops). Stopped playing due to toxic teammates and anti-cheat.

Singed or Nasus top lane is often amusing when you get ahead and then become a problem for everyone else.

I main ADC, but I stopped playing ranked long ago. Mostly play ARAM or Mayhem now. I do occasionally play ranked, but I pick autofill now lol

I mostly play Support, sometimes Jungle if I have to.

Mosltly Braum and Nami, but as a casual fun pick I enjoy Shen Support, even if it sounds weird or troll.

I peaked at Gold 4 but stopped playing ranked, mostly because of toxic teammates.

To this day I've still never given LoL a try. It's not the kind of game I normally play to be fair and I also wasn't much of a gamer on PC for a long time outside of mainly RuneScape and Diablo. A few of my friends play pretty regularly though and so I'm sure if I wanted to give it a try, they'd at least attempt to help me a bit lol. Again though, since it's not my usual kind of game, I'm not too confident I'd have much fun with it. I suppose I'll never know unless I give it a go though.
