Thread: How do you take your coffee?

Mercury - May 25, 2026, 6:11 am

Happy Monday everybody,

How does everybody drink their coffee? I grew up drinking it straight up black like a psychopath and it's how I enjoy it to this day. I find that you get more bang for your buck this way. I will say though, you run the risk of over consuming it and getting jittery, coffee sweats, etc.

What about you?

CL1B - May 25, 2026, 6:17 am

I drink a lot of milky coffees like latte macchiato, the monthly spend comes is comparable to buying cigs (pack a day, 16USD per pack).

I must admit I mostly walk into cafes/lounges for the socials/vibe of the spot, not per say the coffee. I can't really drink black coffee, too strong.

RangoWorld - May 25, 2026, 6:25 am

Half milk, half water and a bit of sugar. That's what I like the most. In terms of coffee type. Can't go wrong with cappuccino.

Do people still hangout in coffee shops with their laptops typing away? I haven't been to one in years, lol.

Edmond Dantes - May 25, 2026, 6:32 am

Used to drink it with milk and sugar for 15 years, now I drink it straight black since December.

LOL, right on. That's me LOL. Hahahaha, i even bring both my windows and macbook laptops. I know the "memes" about us, but I think anyone who needs to use the computer the whole day especially for work should try it. I always look forward to it. I miss it now as I haven't been in what feels like 3 months)

And if you know you know, coffee @ home is like 10x worse and at work its 20x worse (in my case) so in a way i haven't had good coffee in 3 months ?

Sometimes all seats/tables, or better said good seats are taken: That's always a really awkward thing especially if the workers know you and your laptop bag hahaha

I don't know about android phones but if you have a iphone its crucial you use that as wifi hotspot instead of public wifi. I once bought a 20/30 usd portable 5g router but the performance was worse.

My god, I'm so sorry that I stereotyped you haha. I'd love to give it a go but I've never had a reason to and I can get pretty damn antisocial at times sadly.

Cap - May 25, 2026, 7:03 am

I bounce between regular black coffee and some with a dash of light cream to add some "flavor" to it. I used to be bad with cream and sugar.

Deany - May 25, 2026, 3:41 pm

It will need to have a minimum of at least six sugars.

ModernEHustle - May 25, 2026, 4:20 pm

Ah you drink it black? ? the odd time I will when I'm feeling like I'm sophisticated bahahah but medium double double bud (Canadian)

Mommy is that you? ?

I agree on the strong woman part, but I won't deny that I often find short ones with an attitude and dyed hair that ingest more caffeine than food.

Haha, sounds like my wife. Sounds like you, much like myself have what is realistically terrible taste in women.

Pr0m3th3us - May 25, 2026, 6:03 pm

I like mine with a little orange Gatorade powder that been opened and sitting in a closet for about 5 years or so

Ah nice. Yeah, I actually use redbull instead of water with my coffee grounds. Helps me see noises and wind. 11/10

You should put that redbull in a dehydrator or spray dry it and turn it into powder, then mix it with your grounds. Shit would be LIT.

That's actually a pretty good idea. I think I'd sooner snort the powder though. I'll keep you posted on that.

Sift - May 25, 2026, 7:34 pm

With milk

Cha0 - May 25, 2026, 8:17 pm

3 espresso black, like my soul.

anua - May 26, 2026, 3:42 am

Double espresso over ice, no milk no sugar for the most part. Might add some sugar if my energy levels are really low.

Mix - May 26, 2026, 6:26 pm

Black coffee with two sugars, sometimes drown it down to one sugar if I think Ive had a bit to much sugar intake that day but overal no milk for me. Whos making me my coffee then?

G Reviews - May 26, 2026, 6:35 pm

Black and with a mountain of sugar. 25+ years of the routine.

YuxoTM - May 26, 2026, 6:48 pm

Black coffee definitely hits different ?

Psilocybe - May 26, 2026, 9:06 pm

I'm weird with it these days... I like my coffee as concentrated as possible, using dark roast, and the only thing I add to my cup is about 1/2 cup of 1% milk, not for the taste but to cool it down enough to chug immediately. I used to enjoy sipping creamed-down coffee with two scoops of sugar, now I'm simply a caffeine fiend.

What about you? I like my iced caramel coffee

Wake - May 27, 2026, 5:32 am

I started drinking black coffee because I was broke but now I have got quite used to it, Its a quick easy go to now. Depending on how I feel I might have one or two sugars but I try to cut sugar out as much as I can where I can.

You know, I've never thrown sugar into black coffee. I may try it here in a minute. I have a pot brewing as I type this.

My partner is into all these milkshake type coffees you can get from coffee shops. I don't mind them every now and then but black coffee is my go to.

Same. It gets the job done; no nonsense. My wife is the same way with the crazy fancy drinks.

Some coffees have more calories than Big Mac Menu

Eoid - May 27, 2026, 5:13 pm

creamy and warm

Yin Yang - May 27, 2026, 8:02 pm

Not black. Light cream/half and half. With some artificial sweetener if needed

Ryan Carter - September 2, 2026, 10:25 am

I usually drink my coffee with a little milk and no sugar. Black coffee is sometimes too bitter for me, especially in the morning. I try to limit myself to two cups a day so I don't end up feeling jittery.

Terry A. Davis - September 2, 2026, 12:20 pm

Like my men, hot and black.

marketm - September 2, 2026, 2:55 pm

Black no sugar

Sift - September 3, 2026, 10:38 am

With milk I ain't a psychopath like my wife who takes it black.

Your wife is doing it right man. More bang for your buck.

RiveR29 - September 3, 2026, 9:24 pm

In the morning I drink it black.

After lunch I put some milk to it.

After dinner I put some milk in it.

But yeah only black coffee during morning. But I drink 3-6 cups per day.

Not since Uber Eats came to my city. Doing everything online is killing my city though and they keep taking everything away, bins to put old clothes in all taken away because some animals dumped literal garbage in the bins so they're all taken away. Taking away postal boxes, taking away ATMs. Shops all shutting down because people are buying everything online.

I choose a trim latte.

Remember when Elliot Rodger advertised "nice vanilla lattes" the coffee of psychos?

Respect - September 3, 2026, 9:58 pm

Good quality cold brew I enjoy black, otherwise I like it with a little bit of milk and either 2 splenda or sugar free vanilla syrup if they have it

Raijin - September 4, 2026, 7:26 am

If I'm at home I drink it black. Outside I add cream, no sugar.

spins - September 4, 2026, 8:36 am

Energy drinks only or sometimes black coffee.
