Thread: Deal dispute resolvment - New policy

CL1B - May 25, 2026, 7:18 am

As of now when a dispute is opened, the buyer and seller in tandem and or Omniscient are the only persons capable of resolving a dispute.

My suggestion: Raise @Charlie Sheen@ 's auth to be able to handle those as well. He is on par with integrity and knowledge and it acts as a load balancer.

This solves the vulnerability of Omniscient being tired/away/distracted = Increase in victim per scammer.

Did you even ask Charlie if he wanted this responsibility?

And I still have to fix that dang bug with mentions with spaces. Grrr...

EDIT: The mention bug fixed. Charlie Sheen

I just asked him, he's willing to. I genuinely think this is a good move, and I think the community would agree.

Charlie Sheen would love more work, why not?

If these added responsibilities are something Charlie Sheen wants to take on, I couldn't think of a person more fit for the job than him.

This feature could be added to all staff members; they're all good enough for it.

That is, of course, if Omni has actually complained about the issue or wants help in the first place.

are you going to have a cheeky catch phrase like you're from a 90s sitcom?

"You just got loaded"

"obvious statement"

Judge Judy - Live Podcast

I swear it would be funny as fuck

Charlie is now Admin and indeed he will assist with Deal Disputes.

And please note, he was going to be Admin without this suggestion. I just couldn't say that until I had a few things in place.

Welp, it looks like this suggestion thread was the catalyst for Charlie Sheen becoming Admin.

Great work CL1B , this was a well deserved promotion for Charles.

It appears that way but it's not true. I was already considering making him admin.

Not surprised to hear this, we all know Charlie was deserving of the position for some time now.

Kind of funny how CL1B volunteered Charlie as tribute for this. It's like the Hunger Games out here lol.

This is amazing Charlie is very hands on and will resolve deal disputes more quickly.

It would definitely be beneficial to have someone fully dedicated to assisting with deal disputes. Nobody likes scammers, so seeing decisive action taken against them benefits everyone overall.
