Thread: Influencers with sponsorships WYA

Hey, so I been dabbling around with YouTube and TikTok.. I know some people stream, I'm okay at doing that but not overly experienced. I see that people have sponsorships for like stake roobet and stuff and I've always wondered how to get into that. Like make one of those videos where I'm feeding the homeless but hold on lemme just roll this rainbet.

I know it's challenging to be an influencer, so I'm curious, what are your earnings? What do sponsorships look like? And do you have any advice for someone who is new?

You need first to be having viewers for your own content, and then you can get sponsored by them.
