Thread: My neg rep

Silent1ntruder - June 12, 2026, 10:20 am

Hello, i don't remember the names of the people who give me bad rep the last time I visited this site but it seems like the neg rep has been removed. I thank you for this.

I have 1 neg rep left and I have been told to read the help documents but i don't know what it is for. I can only assume that I made an error or some kind of mistake or broke hack forums rules in some way. Under the circumstances the neg rep is deserved and understandable. I can only apologise for this.

Yanix - June 12, 2026, 10:23 am

You still have 1 negative rep from Beherit and you can see it here <https://hackforums.net/reputation.php?uid=357147&show=negative>

Thank you. I see now who gave me neg rep. But I won't contact him about it. I assume i broke the rules and if i did then the neg rep is deserved.

Deany - June 12, 2026, 10:51 am

Well glad it's gone though rep don't mean nothing. All bout the B Ratings !

_VOX - June 12, 2026, 10:52 am

Everyone gets a chance. Enjoy your time on the forum, follow the rules and that rep will jump in no time.

Just an FYI, if doing a deal with someone - no matter how high their rep is I suggest using a middleman service, there has been people with 1k reps and still scam!

5chn4pp - June 12, 2026, 11:08 am

Don't put too much weight on reputation, it's only a number after all.

And that user has given a total of 230 different users negative reps, so you may just be unlucky that he picked you for whatever reason.

Yeah it that kind of stuff hurts my head when I see all green and 1 red. Also I think it is an exiled member who gave you that 1 negative so you can't even message and like sort it out. It will not make a difference that someone who has been exiled has gave you that 1 negative as someone with 2IQ could clearly see that it was just a 1 person did not like you or just not saw eye 2 eye at that stage.

don't worry man, its all numbers without meaning

Pr0m3th3us - June 14, 2026, 11:02 pm

Dude you complained in the chat a couple weeks ago (yes i was informed by another user) about that stupid thread you made LAST FUCKING YEAR trying to sell HF email accounts.....

Then you convo me about it today....AFTER A WHOLE FUCKING YEAR!!!

Now your trying to play the pitty card for rep...

Im fucking negging you and ignoring you.

Your going to be 65 and still talking shit on HF about that thread you made in 2025 that i apparently ruined.

For one i wasn't trying to sell email accounts. i simply asked for an appraisal to see if they were worth anything. there's a difference from asking for an appraisal and trying to sell something. but you would need to go back to school to know what that difference is. i don't have time to teach you.

I'm not playing the pity card at all you can neg rep me all you want. you are a pathetic loser and you get a power trip from treating people badly. you really are pathetic. I don't give a flying fk about my rep nor the hackforums website. i was investigated by a detective sergeant who even had a picture of my hf profile and asked if it was me. this site is watched by feds and it has many feds users. using this site will get you caught. why do you think i have only visited 3 or 4 times in the past 5 years.

i remember years ago the feds wanted to take over the forum and turn it into a black hat forum. omni said no, but he said they worked out another deal. what do you think that deal was?? you're being watched and your too dumb to realise it. actually it wouldn't surprise me if you are a fed.

I will get a lot of bad rep from this post but you should take a look and study the people who neg rep me because of this post and keep in mind that many of them will be police, feds whatever you want to call them. they don't like shit getting out and they dont like being exposed. the detective who questioned me had been watching me for a long time and even asked if i had eve been diagnosed with autism or aspergers. you need to watch someone for e a hell of a long time to think up things like that prometheus, go fk yourself. end of story. im out itcorp - July 10, 2026, 4:00 pm

today I am happy, so we will spread that happiness further Pr0m3th3us fix that neg....Man should believe in a second chance...

TB12 - July 10, 2026, 5:14 pm

Lots of lore to unpack here holy shit lol bebonzy09 - July 11, 2026, 12:12 am

I wouldn't care about rep at all ESPECIALLY in 2026... it happens some people are weird but at the end of the day its pixels on a screen lmao you can't get too mad about it. I'm only trying to get to 50 rep so I can upgrade to Ub3r after that idgaf anymore

Edmond Dantes - July 11, 2026, 3:20 am

Yeah like other users said popularity is not that important, B-rating is what counts the most.

I am over it. To be honest I thought you made it look like I was doing something shady, I have always had good intentions on the forum and I would never do anything shady even if it benefits me.

As far as I'm concerned it's in the past, I have said what I wanted to say and I'm now happy to forget about it. I have no ill feelings towards you or anyone else on the forum.

Sippian - August 24, 2026, 4:56 pm

I made an account a couple years ago to network but don't know why I didn't stick around. When I came back a few days ago it turns out I had my passkey saved and now I'd like to stick around and make some friends ?

Why would you tarnish the 420/1337 mix? Surely.

I'd then have to be a cunt to 69 or.... 67

Negative reps aren't the end of the world.

I assume i broke the rules and if i did then the neg rep is deserved. It isn't about breaking the rules and it doesn't have to be "deserved" people can give you negative rep for almost any reason they feel like with the one exception that they can't give you rep that has anything to do with the market place.

Primarily, it allows members to express their personal opinion about another user.

It is not intended to measure trustworthiness, professionalism, or Marketplace reliability. It is exactly like real life popularity mostly random and quite likely to be unfair.

The only reps that are illegitimate and can't be deleted is if it has anything remotely to do with the marketplace. A comment like "He supports scammers, he upvoted scammers" can be deleted. Rep that has nothing to do with the marketplace or being trusted etc... will stay and there is no point complaining about it.

If you want to buy and/or sell something on this forum then credibility is what you want to have be good. Your previous neg rep was deleted as Hack Forums moved to popularity being random but credibility being all about your deals in the marketplace.
