UPGRADING - June 16, 2026, 10:38 am

I've spent some time now on the forum and keep sharing some useful stuff here and there, along with maintaining a clean reputation across my sales.

any referral is appretiated,

You can check out the Groups and Crews section in the Hack Forums news for a list of recruitment threads <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6327119> or alternatively you can browse Group and Crew General Discussions find a group that aligns with what you want/have to offer and fill out a recruitment form. Good luck in your search mate!

We aren't doing official recruitment right now, but my PMs are always open for requests regarding the Equilibrium group.

You can learn more about the group here to see if you match its direction:
