Paid for award with monero, didnt work.

Motusora - June 21, 2026, 6:58 pm

i think omni handles them manually ?
not sure tho, wait for him to go online.

Paying with crypto takes 7 confirmations before Stanley gifts you the award.

If you sent the exact funds requested to the address that was presented on your invoice then it is there. Check the blockchain.

If there was an error with your payment processing and the money has been received by Omniscient then he will surely handle this. He is the boss.

Hell yea. He will get it set straight. I don't know Omni to screw people over, especially over $20. That's like, barely a candy bar nowadays lol.

Damn now I'm hungry for a snickers...
