Thread: Looking for bad reviews on Google Business

Stach - June 22, 2026, 8:45 pm

My buddy got over $100,000 stolen from him & he knows exactly who did it. He wants to try and ruin his business and wife's business by leaving bad reviews if anyone can help looking to pay for bad reviews that will guarantee stick.

Thanks,

DM me please.

You can also do

Social media removals and google deindexing.

Lmk if you need help with any of these

I have a database full of email addresses that can be used to send thousands of negative reviews and ruin the business. Since I'm new here, I'm willing to use an escrow service provided by any site administrator or a well-known member of the forum. Regards.
