I still need to watch the 2nd season. I'm not paying for HBO though, so may be a while.

I'm following this. Really like this show. Episode 1 and 2 of this season were quite the spectacle

I got time to watch Episode 3 already. That took a different turn.

I heard that episode 3 was supposed to be the season 3's first episode. But season 2 was cut short and so the ending of that season moved to season 3. Makes sense.

I have not read the books but honestly, looking forward to seeing the Uncle and Nephew fight. If you know what I mean.
