Saw this and thought it's a great deal, especially with the new GTA being released shortly.

The main story is great, especially if you have never played a GTA yet i would get it for sure...but...

Online is 100% trash on PC, has been for around 8? years now. Rockstar gave up on trying to do anything against the modders/cheaters a couple years ago. Surprisingly they announced it publicly. I had officially stopped playing online a couple years before that announcement. I seriously hope something concrete is done with GTA 6 when online is out.

I agree. Story and offline is great fun. FiveM is also really fun but regular online is not good whatsoever.

Thanks for sharing this, I'll share this to a friend of mine and by the way if you have the legacy (the original version) you can claim the enhanced edition for free. I thought I had to buy it again. I mean I might be the only one who doesn't know this lol but I'm just gonna leave it here anyway for the same people like me who doesn't know yet. Cheers, thank you again and Enjoy y'all ?

They just recently made it so you can play FiveM on the enhanced edition aswell. There are like no servers for it yet, but its nice to finally be able to play it in the new version before GTA6.
