Awesome Contest, thanks for this!

What's a completely impractical item you'd love to own just because it would bring you joy?
Good question, probably the WinRaR subscription, would feel nice to finally give something back after 10 years of politely clicking "not now"

Deany - July 10, 2026, 11:01 am
All requirements done!

What's a completely impractical item you'd love to own just because it would bring you joy?

Right now I'll probably say one of them crazy showers with 800 shower heads and you just get power washed bassicly. In a heat wave after all.

Thanks for the competition OP!

Three - July 10, 2026, 1:39 pm
Thats good question.

I have loved the sea since childhood. I would definitely love to own a decommissioned Los Angeles class submarine.

The inside of the submarine is like a small town, and I would love to go there with my friends and spend time there.

I couldnt start the submarine and travel in it, but it would make me very happy.

Djangoo - July 10, 2026, 2:55 pm
Awesome contest! Djangoo would like to try his luck. Here is the answer to your question: A quiet AI workstation with four top-tier NVIDIA GPUs, 256 GB of RAM, and enough SSD space to keep every interesting open-source model locally.?

What's a completely impractical item you'd love to own just because it would bring you joy?

I'd love to own a supercar, even though I know it's not practical. I don't need one for everyday life, but just seeing it in my garage and taking it for a drive once in a while would make me really happy.

Artisan - July 10, 2026, 10:03 pm

Thanks for hosting this giveaway mate.

For me the item would be any anime merch. Posters, wallets, key rings, action figures and so on.

Monero-chan - July 10, 2026, 10:31 pm

JNath - July 11, 2026, 5:40 am

I'd like to own a vape so I can satisfy my cravings for smoking as I've quit cigarettes already.

w00400 - July 11, 2026, 1:46 pm

most impractical item is dell studio 17" core2duo 2gb ram laptop - old as f.ck, but still running antix inux. It can monitor lan or make api requests. After vacuuming it is quite silent. On the other side - it has fullsize keyboard with lights and cool clicker, damn many usb ports and 1600x1200 mate screen. I am never sure what for do i keep it. But i do.

OG-Pablo - July 11, 2026, 4:59 pm

Here is my entry post into the contest thanks for doing this. I love to get anew Phone with good speed.

amg64 - July 11, 2026, 5:14 pm

One of those big, fancy espresso machines with all the gauges and steam wands. Takes up half the counter, needs constant cleaning, but pulling perfect shots every morning would be my little daily

luxury ritual :P

Thanks for the contest

Li Huang - July 11, 2026, 6:00 pm

- "What's a completely impractical item you'd love to own just because it would bring you joy?"

I would like the Arctic Leopard XE PRO R 2026, just because it's a very cool toy, I've watched enough videos about it, and I really want to ride it all day, pick at it, tune it all the time, just for fun, to give myself something that I wouldn't normally get.

Mastercarder - July 11, 2026, 6:03 pm

A custom-built treehouse designed like a luxury cabin. I'm an adult and have no need for one, but it would make me feel like a kid again. Would design the fuck out of it tho.

Done both requirements thanks op

Consecration - July 11, 2026, 7:21 pm

Will be getting my daughter her birthday present . Thanks for hosting this.

zorenx - July 12, 2026, 1:05 am

Hmm... Maybe a high-end fountain pen? My handwriting is terrible. Well, it will probably not make my handwriting any better but at least it's on a premium pen and ink xD

?inimalist - July 12, 2026, 7:13 am

Vaping. It's completely impractical, but I love it. I enjoy the vapor for no particular reason, it just makes me happy.

Trillium - July 12, 2026, 9:12 am

A present for my family, thanks Sylen for the Contest!

Eran - July 12, 2026, 9:33 am

Thanks for this! I will be joining, completed all my requirements.

I'd probably like to own like a custom zero gravity capsule where I could lay down and have it have pretty lights that maybe sync up to the music and outside noise cancellation. Hell yeah.

Manifesting this W ?

ModernEHustle - July 12, 2026, 12:31 pm

Hey thanks so much for the giveaway! I'd 100% but those meta glasses that have like the screen in them. Just worried they'd put unskippable adds in my face while driving lol. Anyway goodluck everyone!

RangoWorld - July 12, 2026, 9:44 pm

Thanks for hosting this contest.

I would love to own a super computer. With high end specs. Even though I might still sometimes run Minecraft only. Lol. I might not use it for it's intended purpose but it'll give me mental peace.

Net - July 13, 2026, 3:45 am

What's a completely impractical item you'd love to own just because it would bring you joy?

That is simple for me. A PSA 10 Sabrinas Gengar Holo (First edition). Simply because even since a kid I loved that card.

Koyote - July 13, 2026, 3:52 am

What's a completely impractical item you'd love to own just because it would bring you joy?

I think for me, it would be a lifesize R2D2 that would follow me around the house and do little tasks here and there. I've always wanted one and dreamed of building my own if I had the skills one day.

Slumerican ? - July 13, 2026, 4:04 am

Hey, op thanks for the contest. I would love to own all the festival bracelets that I went to but lost/couldnt collect them :)

Quote:What's a completely impractical item you'd love to own just because it would bring you joy?

I'd love to own a giant telescope for stargazing.? It's definitely not something I'd use every day, and it would probably take up way too much space, but being able to look at planets, galaxies, and the night sky whenever I wanted would be incredible?

Freemasons - July 13, 2026, 12:37 pm

Yanix - July 14, 2026, 2:59 pm

Probably I'd say, I want more branded and latest sneakers. I don't really need more shoes, but I just enjoy collecting and wearing pairs that I like. It's a small thing, but it makes me happy.

By the way, thanks for hosting this giveaway contest. Keep safe and God bless.

Jahad - July 14, 2026, 6:49 pm

Quote:What's a completely impractical item you'd love to own just because it would bring you joy?
A jukebox. I'd never use it, and it'd take up hella space, but hey it looks cool haha

Pr0m3th3us - July 16, 2026, 2:57 am

Quote: What's a completely impractical item you'd love to own just because it would bring you joy?

If I could own one completely impractical item just for the joy of it, it would be an authentic WWII German Enigma machine. It makes absolutely zero sense to own one, they cost hundreds of thousands of dollars and as a piece of cryptography hardware, it's totally useless compared to modern computing tools. But having it sit on my desk would be awesome.

Beamers - July 16, 2026, 10:50 am

What's a completely impractical item you'd love to own just because it would bring you joy?

I will like to own a new watch.

DemonAsylum - July 16, 2026, 8:06 pm

Thanks for hosting this! Gave you max +pop and QLed the thread.

As for the question, maybe an absurdly overkill multi PC setup that while I wouldn't require anywhere near what it had to offer, I would still find incredibly cool to have at my disposal.

Good luck everyone!

Answer: A retired Bitcoin mining rig. I'm using it as my winter heater.
Reason: Mining costs more in electricity than it earns, but I love the concept of being "the man who burns money to stay warm."
A regular heater just gets hot. This one gets hot AND loses money.

bebonzy09 - July 17, 2026, 8:35 pm
Good question.

I would love to own any 1999-2003 sealed booster box of Pokemon cards. It's impractical because I would never open or use it and would only be used as a display and or collectors item that appreciates in value. You would be surprised at how much sealed Pokemon boxes are going for now... makes me regret not keeping sealed packs in my childhood lmao

Bluffer - July 17, 2026, 8:53 pm
