Charlie Sheen - July 18, 2026, 5:43 pm

The Top G and his brother have found themselves arrested again. US Marshals made the arrests in Miami. They are to be extradited to the UK on rape and trafficking charges.

I haven't seen them pop up in my algorithm in a while, haven't been caught up. They're after him again, can't wait for that first speech after found innocent again.

henixzer - July 19, 2026, 3:46 am

Its sad to see them get targeted again and again.

DramaKing - July 19, 2026, 4:09 am

Is Andrew still claiming that he's being persecuted for promoting masculinity?

I haven't seen anything about these two in so long. I'm not sure if they knew this was coming or if they have been preparing for it. Last time I heard them say anything was probably a year ago.

Yin Yang - July 19, 2026, 8:27 am

lol they had spongebob there too

Andrew Tate is a piece of shit, the abundant video proof which is all over the internet is clear.

And those of you who support him you are also a piece of shit.

Mastercarder - July 21, 2026, 5:25 pm

Nothing against the Tate brothers, I don't even believe they are human traffickers or whatever lol, but this seems to be a massive distraction and staged

Incomprehensible - July 22, 2026, 2:46 pm

Curious to see if anything sticks to them this time, they've been taken in a couple times

ModernEHustle - July 22, 2026, 4:47 pm

Haven't they been tried for this same thing multiple times and been let go? Gosh, it's a bad time to be a Tate brother lol.

Andy Walker - July 22, 2026, 10:03 pm

In the business they're in, these accusations are expected. We'll see how it goes but i personally think they are responsible in some way.

They have to face up to that.

They have to face up to that. They are not to be expected. I know a pimp who has never been accused let alone arrested of hurting his girls at any time ever. Andrew has an admitted non consent choking fetish. It isn't OK. Imagine being choked. Actually he's just been caught saying that he enjoys when girls hate it. Don't know that he's admitted to the choking fetish. But men need to actually imagine being choked before saying non consensual choking is AOK.

Let's not forget that the Tate brothers used their Trump connections to pressure the Romanian authorities to lift the travel ban that kept them in Romania.

Hopefully this time, the UK authorities will actually ensure a fair trial and not succumb to outside pressure.

Wow, I didn't even know these guys were still active on social media. I honestly thought they had disappeared after all the accusations against them.

It's genuinely sad to see how people like this still have such a huge young audience. Too much internet, too much "become a millionaire and be an alpha," or "make every girl obsessed with you because you're the boss."

It makes me think that a lot of those young guys who say, "Nah bro, I'm just focused on my masculinity. I'm only working on myself. Nothing else matters," are constantly fooling themselves. All that insecurity and sexual frustration makes them want to become people like these influencers, who sell a version of success and financial prosperity that's often incredibly unrealistic—and sometimes downright bizarre.

You're right. That job if you think about it is inherently prone to or borderline to the abuse of women. Can you be a good pimp? Sure. But that role gives a person significant power and control over a person's sexual lifestyle. Maybe i'm a bit cynical, but i generally assume the worst when someone has that power.

The people that like to or want to do those lines of work are those abusers. Case in point, the Tate brothers. They're a perfect example Of what happens in that unregulated industry.

Not their sexual lifestyle but their working lifestyle. Tate brags about being cruel and evil and deceptive towards his workers. "He says women are dumb so they believe him when he tells them they only get 50% because he pays their taxes for them out of his 50% but he never actually does and then he fines them for this that and the other thing.And this comes form his own words his own admission on audio.

Because he was dumb enough to think having an extra income stream where he charged 50 dollars a month to men to learn his "secrets" of his business which is not being an Only Fans Manager and not being a pimp....he's a human trafficker.

And he never let them go out to spend anything and Andrew had two women that would torture the women that had pissed him off in any way, force them to keep their arms high in the air after being forced to get breast surgery etc... so that would feel like torture that wouldn't hurt the merchandise. He'd get those two women to do all the torture by paying them a lot more than the girls got.

But what made his income stream of telling men this for $50 dollars a month so stupid is that of course journalists infiltrated and have him on audio admitting to crimes.

Its really different from a dudes perspective. You cant expect a dude to behave like a woman. You cant expect someone to do shit that would please you, people do all types of crazy shit in this world, way worse than Andrew Tate, if he is choking a bitch with her consent as a fetish, i don't see any harm in it. Obviously the media and the people who is trying to stop him would say the choking was non consensual.

Multiple women around the world have said it was done without consent CHOKING is not a mild thing to do to someone. Multiple women have alleged that he raped and choked them with no consent. It needs it's day in court. There are also multiple women that have accused two women working for him of doing torture on them to keep them in line as part of human trafficking. Yes some women left the residence and went clubbing with the brothers while other women were enslaved and had their passports stolen and were fined for sniffing on camera etc...

Authorities have just found multiple fake passports of the brothers. The brothers were arrested by US Marshals in Miami, Florida on a UK extradition warrant. They are being held in federal custody while fighting extradition to face nearly 60 combined charges in the United Kingdom, including rape, sex trafficking, and related criminal offense.

So what are you even saying? That men commit crime and we can't expect men to not commit crime and not be sex offenders? That sound like what you are saying. There are no women talking about having consensual choking with Andrew and even if there were that wouldn't prove it was consensual with others and would probably be because they were paid to say it.

I actually happened to have been close to a man that was a pimp, that owned strip clubs and brothels. He was a multi-millionaire [I'm saying was because he died this June.] No women ever accused him of the kind of shit that Andrew and Tristan have been accused of. He was able to do that kind of work, make millions and not be human scum unlike the Tate's with all they've ADMITTED to. Dummies thought they could have another income stream charging men $50 a month to learn their methods but duh journalists paid and got them on tape talking about how they lied to women that they were paying their taxes but just pocketed the 50% themselves and never paid their taxes, got caught on audio admitting to fraud by pretending they were in love and wanted to marry women just to get them stranded in Romania stealing their passports and forcing them to work extensive hours without showing sadness and to more and more extreme acts.

Nothing like that was happening with the man I knew in his similar line of work. You don't have to act like a monster to become a multi-millionaire actually.

I'm not being biased when I say that the "War Room," and sharing their "methods" was a very foolish move. Because journalists joined his War Room and caught Andrew on tape admitting to crimes. I've heard these. He's literally on audio tape admitting to "the Lover Boy" method which is a form of fraud and admitting to tax evasion.

So they deleted it? Do we wonder why? Lol

I'll say this for Andrew he has amassed a collection of fantastic motivational quotes, some of which he stole or modified but some may possibly be his own clever invention or his father's. A guy on here was paying the $50 a month and sharing some with me.

But all being said, where there's smoke there's fire, innocent until proven guilty is important but it doesn't work so well when it comes to rape because it becomes victims are judged as guilty of lying until proven innocent yeah that sucks. You don't have to act like a monster to make money in that industry.

Feminism is an equality movement. Man hating is wrong. Man hating is bigotry and a perversion of the movement.

Unfortunately we live in a world where being shocking can make someone go viral and make bank.

Being openly misogynistic and sexist is far more acceptable to society than other forms of bigotry, we saw this with Roosh V and Andrew Tate and no doubt others I have missed.

Standing up for men and acknowledging male issues shouldn't mean demeaning women, just as feminism should be focused on positive change and should never be about hate.

Andrew said he wasn't scared of saturation because his subscribers were lazy and wouldn't follow through on anything. I'm guessing some of them also didn't want to risk the illegal bits, or didn't want to do the seriously cruel and abusive bits.

I am just saying that do not blindly trust everything you read on the internet, there is a 50-50 chance that the dude is innocent and was also a nice guy similar to your pimp friend, the difference is that the pimp did not do what Andrew was doing on the internet, someone accusing you of something doesn't make you guilty, people can be bought. He might have messed with the wrong people in the background, we never know. FYI i am not a fan of him nor do i support him. I just like how convincingly he gets people to buy into his subscription. We both know how hard it is to successfully get people online to subscribe to you. If it comes down to Andrew tate or The Pact, a fellow HFian is more important to me.

A woman in the UK accused Andrew Tate of sexual assault, in 2023 voice notes to the same woman who accused Andrew were leaked with him saying "I love raping you".

Do you need anymore evidence than that to believe he is a piece of shit? or should we just ignore the fact that the woman accused him and he sent that voice note and because it is Andrew it must have been the usual famous rich person excuse right? just locker room talk right?.

Or how about the fact that he said he prefers dating 18 year olds because they are easier to imprint and "control" compared to older women.

What about the fact that he bragged that women are his "property".

This is all public information, but hell it is probably all just locker room talk and the women must be liars.

The thing is...it's not stuff I read on the internet. I have listened to recordings journalists made ...it's audio from Tate's own mouth admitting to some of these crimes.

Admitting to lying to women that their share was smaller because he was paying their taxes out of it for them, and he said he'd even print out a bunch of garbage and say it was proof he was doing tax stuff for them and they'd just buy it because 18 year old girls are stupid he said.

And he'd just keep all the money that he said was going on their taxes. That's just one thing he admitted to on audio. That's fraud.

And the stupidest thing he did was decide to share illegal methods with any old man that would pay him because some of them were journalists, and he also admitted on audio you can listen to that he used the "lover boy" method which is lying to girls that he wanted to marry them just to get them somewhere secluded and all he wanted was to make all these girls he lied to that he was in love with them when he wasn't, and lied that he wanted to marry him to trick them into being in his Only Fans company. This is actually fraud.

So, with that I don't find the other accusations such as getting them out to Romania to a secluded area and they have to work ten hour days or his two enforcer girl torture them and they get fines for snivelling. And my "pimp" and strip club owner friend" did give girls fines at one point because it was a long standing tradition although unbeknownst to me he cancelled the fines the day he met me because he didn't want me to find out he was doing that.

Innocent until prove guilty for sure, although the concept works very badly when it comes to rape because it ends up being that the alleged victims are considered guilty of lying until proven innocent and that's very fucked up.
