Thread: Business Idea & Finding Partnership

hacmas - July 24, 2026, 7:58 am

I am seeking for the best business idea for a transparent partnership.

there were some spell error on my previous post, i think, so it was warned by HQ and closed automatically.

welcome any type of business, and I prefer ready projects or real-profitable ideas.

thanks.

PS. this is only for who really want a true partnership for our own business model.

What is the best business in your mind? And what do you bring to the table?

I prefer automated business model built on stable infra. I have several ideas in mind and some of them came true in real world. I am going to extend my business area, but what exactly would you like to convey?

As a follow-up question: my previous same content post was warned by moderators. And the only comment under it, was yours - though its content seemed slightly weird.

Could you please explain why?

Since I don't use this forum frequently as you can know through this forum, I'd greatly appreciate your help.

thanks.

Honestly, there are lots of scammers everywhere. So, Yeah. This forum isn't an exception.

But there are honest people everywhere as well.
