Cats would somehow make you apologize to them.

Turkeys got a nasty attitude tho

Raijin - September 24, 2026, 10:46 am

I misread your thread title as “animes” not “animals. That would have been weird.

nightmare1981 - September 24, 2026, 8:13 pm

Definitely cats. They already spend the whole day looking at humans with pure, judgmental silent entitlement anyway. If they suddenly got the ability to speak, they wouldn't even say hello, they'd just demand their food and point out every single one of our flaws.

RiveR29 - September 25, 2026, 5:20 am

I would say, most likely to be rude would have to be fieldfare or seagulls. They are already extremely annoying to deal with, and they are hostile as hell. Both of them.
