If my network allows me to not move my wordlists off my server I'll run 'em through weakpass and rock you.

Shame, I don't have enough space left on my desktop, I'd have been more than happy to let them run overnight, but my network is going to be to shit to let 'em crank over it. I might be able to do RockYou, but unlikely I'll get to WeakPass just because I simply don't have the space.

Would've been quite good to see one or two pop I reckon.

Right we didnt need to know that lol.....

anyways...someone is going to have to be willing to grab that file from you another way.
