take 50 buckos, learn filtering.

loose those 50 buckos

learn about patterns, manage emotions

loose another 50 buckos

learn some more about money management and risk management have your first success, just to loose another 50 buckos

start again and improve daily.

eventually you become good.

long story short, in trading - especially meme-coins, you will have to be ready to loose in the first place.

longterm, if you follow the above, you might get lucky if you can actually apply.

most ppl loose already due to their emotions.

People get wrecked trading meme coins, man. The odds are stacked against you. The only real way to make money off a meme coin is to have insider info or launch one yourself and rugpulling everyone.
