Recently, footage of GTA 6 was leaked by Cyberleek and I guess the hype got to Clumsy his head because why the fuck am I reading about him faking a GTA 6 leak?

Pretty funny to see how dumb he is, having no money but wanting to take credit for the biggest leak of the decade against a multi billion company is wish for serious jail time. He has been so smart to have his handle show up with his legal name on LinkedIn as well.

Anyways the GTA 6 leaks are truly wild, does anyone know how Cyberleek got it?

I saw a news headline the other day stating that Cyberleek was threatening to leak the ending to the game if Rockstar doesn't stop digital pre-orders or something. I didn't read the article but I do think it's nuts that this company is being threatened over pre-orders.

Now that's some breaking news, well played but now Well enough Clumsy

Um I think the 2026 incident is due to the recent Cyberleek, I'm not sure how but would be interesting to know

I feel really bad for whomever did leak it tho because they are going to prison for a very long time the feds have already came and questioned me about this and I let them do a forensic dump of my devices GG I'm not going to prison over some loser blackhats that are mad because they want clout LMFAO video game hacking is for people that can't actually reverse engineer rofl
