Thread: FBI Arrests Woman accused of ISIS attack plot

Prepper - August 21, 2026, 3:46 pm

Jessica Bowie, 35, of Albany, is charged with attempting to provide material support to ISIS. The FBI says she pledged allegiance to the terror group, discussed disguising a bomb in a DoorDash delivery bag and wanted to carry out the attack when state senators were meeting.

This comes at a time when tensions are rising in the US in regards to Islam with popular Muslims making threats that Islam will enter every household.

I didn't think that ISIS was still around. I read over the article and it seems like she's just a crazy who pledged allegiance to ISIS however never had any communications with the group. This was a plot she began cooking up on social media, and the FBI then sent in undercovers to meet with her.

ISIS is still around just not as organized as it once was, Islamic terrorism is never going anywhere they all basically believe the same teachings from the Quran and authentic hadith.

Fake news. FBI is ISIS.

Fake terror plots, paid informants: the tactics of FBI 'entrapment' questioned

Even more shocking was that the organisation, money, weapons and motivation for this plot did not come from real Islamic terrorists. It came from the FBI, and an informant paid to pose as a terrorist mastermind paying big bucks for help in carrying out an attack. For McWilliams, her own government had actually cajoled and paid her beloved nephew into being a terrorist, created a fake plot and then jailed him for it. "I feel like I am in the Twilight Zone," she told the Guardian.
