My wife and I were in the middle of a heated argument.

She slammed the kettle down; I froze mid-shout. Suddenly, both of us stopped and stared at the pup proudly trotting in to present a thoroughly chewed, spat-out slipper.

She loses it, screams at the dog, whips around to me, and yells:

Wife Wrote:"I NEED SPACE."

I was completely speechless. Brain totally fried from staring at Burp Suite all day, the only thing that managed to leave my mouth was:

"%20"

Currently looking for an alternative couch to sleep on. Drop your payload suggestions below.

Maybe you need root to get over it, or maybe touch her more? To bad is was a dog not a cat.

I don't think I'll be quitting my day job any time soon

Good thing you're monogamous or that would've updated horribly.

The thing I should say is not using FKs for your wife's mental state, you might get drift now.

Do you know the difference between a woman and a terrorist?

You can negotiate with the terrorist but you can't negotiate with women.

Do you know why women get lost when using a map?

Because the kitchen isn't located on it!
