Thread: [\[Free\] Granting Access to my Plex Libraries](#)

Mercury - September 13, 2026, 7:39 am

Happy Sunday everyone.

I'm currently sitting on just shy of 6TB's worth of movies/TV shows on my Plex server. I figure that there's probably people out there who would most likely enjoy some free media so I'm granting access to my fellow Hackforums users. As of today we're at 611 individual movie titles and 4,855 TV episodes of varying series which I will list below. All titles have been acquired legally. Simply post your plex username (associated email will work as well) below or shoot me a PM/Convo and I'll grant you access.

Please note that the quality of these titles will vary. You can reach out to me anytime with requests; I may or may not assist depending on what I have going on but it doesn't hurt to try. Until I upgrade to a larger drive, I may have to remove less desirable files to upload new media.

If (and I'm not holding my breath) this generates enough traction I have been toying with the idea of creating a group (be it Discord or whatever else) for this but I'm not holding my breath. I hope it at least gets some usage!

Doesn't Plex have mechanisms for flagging users that illegally share access to content?

That wouldn't surprise me. If they do, I've somehow managed to fly low enough for months this way. I have 6 or 7 users actively streaming my libraries at the moment.

Awesome offer. Thanks for sharing this. I'm good I barely watch tv I live on YouTube lol.
But others will benefit!
