Hey everyone! Sometimes it feels there's nothing to watch when in reality there's tons of stuff to watch lol. What are some of your favorite TV Series or Movies?

Supryt - September 13, 2026, 8:02 pm

For now, I'm following House of The Dragons. It has been running on Season 3.

Friends when I'm feeling down. Lately I've been having lots of laughs with Tires which is a Netflix show with Shane Gillis... absolutely hilarious!

Not a standard series, but One Piece (the anime, not live-action). The long-term storytelling is unmatched once you get into it.

Super Mario Galaxy 1 & 2 (2 my fav so far)

Take it from a guy who never watched any anime before, I watched attack on titan and it's my favorite show of all time.

Very weird comment. But your already banned. I actually never heard of incel before thanks for your feedback. Not upset or annoyed about it, I just really feel nothing about your statement.

I have to be completely honest lol. I love putting together NAS servers full of Ultra HD rips, messing around with Kodi, and obviously selling IPTV... but I actually don't watch that many movies or TV shows myself. ?

Sometimes it's kind of embarrassing because you'd think with everything I do, I'd have way better knowledge of movies and shows than I actually do lol.

So for someone like me who's basically starting from scratch, what are some movies or shows that you think are absolute must-watches? I'm trying to improve my movie/TV knowledge a little bit haha.
