I guarantee the vast majority of you blue and yellow usernamed award-hogging retards do not even know what OPSEC is. Spit me a story, assholes!!!!!!

Rule one of OPSEC: never spill your own playbook. I'm not sharing mine. I already know I'm on the radar of a couple 3 letter agencies. Here is a simple OPSEC guide for noobs: Keep your digital footprint tight, use QubesOS, and set up yourself a multi chain proxy. Separate your online and offline identities, and avoid making yourself easy to track. Build your life around staying low-key, make your money, and retire. I made mine, but retirement isn't really my thing. I'm having way too much fun. Go big or go home.
