IDK.. maybe it's me... I'm just not into this type of comedy anymore. I kept telling myself i wasn't going to watch it. I had a girl over and of course she smoked a bit. She wanted to watch the movie. I had to sit through it. It's okay though i was able to get a laugh or two. She wouldn't stop cracking up. I guess since i stopped smoking weed a long time ago i don't find any interest in these movies anymore. do you feel the same?

The first 3 films I couldn't wait for them to come out. I thought they were so funny, the last few I had zero desire. I don't think I even saw the 5th one. Eventually I will watch this newest one, just for the hell of it. But I'm hoping it's not a bunch of the recycled jokes from the first ones.
