Thread: Going for Lounge Head award

Wish me luck on the grind to getting that Lounge Head award! Been here a decade and have only just gotten my first. Embarrassing yes but I guess it's never too late to start!!

Hopefully activity is high enough for me to make it!

Starting to think it may be quite hard unless I just bump old posts like crazy. What are some good awards to aim for? Are there any hidden ones?

October 1st starts OctoberFest. This is when most members go for Lounge Head. It'll be very easy.

Damn. Timing!

Appreciate it man, I'll definitely be participating. What is OctoberFest exactly on HF?

It's a yearly event where Omni makes a month long challenge to hit a mark for posts. For example a member has to make 500 posts, he usually increases the amount of posts required by 100 each year and some years has added a thread creation requirement as well such as 600 posts and 30 threads. By hitting these requirements a member unlocks the Octoberfest award.
