Not sure if this is the right place but I'm trying to post in the currency exchange section but it's coming up saying I don't have permission.. anyone got any idea what I need to do? I thought it was because I wasn't u3br but I've seen other posts made by people with just the l33t membership which I have. Thanks

Yeah Uber is a requirment, and Ub3r can be usually bought for 1 year, or sometimes there are lifetime purchase but it's random, and it happens maybe once a year, or two during special events and short periods of time.

I've just checked the section and the threads from L33T are old, so I assume that people who posted were Ub3r and their upgrade expired since

Ah that's a shame. Thanks for the reply.
