Thread: Hey old friends, in desperate need of help

Hey guys. Been a few years since I've checked in on HF. Happy to see it's still alive. I don't want to get too much into detail but essentially I need to make $1450 within the next 24 hours or I need to close down my IRL business for good. It's 7 months old and I've put blood sweat and years into building it this far and I cannot let it just dissipate.

I'm not naive and understand it's most likely nearly impossible. Back in the day my main focus was ewhoring but I have no idea of it still actually works or what the current methods are that do.

If anyone has any real honest suggestions or ideas on how I could potentially make that amount within 24 hours please, I beg of you, post below or DM me.

Thank you..

Yeah start a go fund me bot views on the fundraiser to it ends up on trending.

Start a monthly membership with exclusives

Use "EasyPay Financial" get a personal loan for 1400 use a card to pay back, change the card. Or any credit lender that doesn't report like one outside the US

The guy needs to make the money in 24 hours, you want him to sell monthly memberships? Honestly go fish with a pole and hope you find some rich bitcoin dude is my guess, thats the best way in 24 hours just chat 100 people up hope you can fish something somehow, its a realistic goal.
