Thread: Is There Anything You Want Do More Of, Start Doing, Or Accomplish Here On HF?

DemonAsylum - October 11, 2026, 3:31 pm

There are tons of possibilities and opportunities here on HF that anyone is open to pursue if they so choose and in some cases if they also have the means. Are there any things that come to mind that you'd like to do more of, start doing, or generally just accomplish here on HF? It could be starting some sort of service or shop, being more active in a certain section, contributing via tutorials or posts on the threads of others seeking help, getting more involved with a group, or countless other things.

I'm honestly pretty content at the moment with what all I do on here. If I had to pick something though then I wouldn't mind posting a bit more often and expanding the sections in which I do so. If any sort of group events or opportunities came along that I truly felt I could be a good asset to, maybe I'd want to try and be involved. For the most part though I'm currently fine with what all I do on here and how I spend the time that I do on here.

Currently focusing on accomplishing running the perfect group and hopefully bring new people into the forum.

I imagine it will be a lot of work and take some time for things to get anywhere close to where you're pretty content with them, but I've liked what I've seen so far from you and so have faith in your ability to do great things with the group and have the forum benefit from it.

I am that cranky old guy who doesn't go around waving my dick of skills, but I am full of them. Might not be as talented as some, but most certainly not a scrub.

I think I just want to be me on here, that cool uncle that people know knows things, but doesn't really need to prove it, so no, not really anything from me.

I can get behind that, you're just going to do you. I've enjoyed my interactions with you, think you're quite the character at times and not in a bad way to be clear, but I also recognize that you're genuinely knowledgeable about some things which I can appreciate. I say keep on being exactly who you have been.

Thanks, I try be a character, I'm older than my shoe size, been here an awful long time, don't see a point in being super mature all of the time. Just ask the kids back when I used to be in K12.

I want to start making higher quality posts, make friends, and chase awards (in a healthy way) lol

Based on your warnings, I'd say the higher quality posts goal is a good one to have haha. Just messing with you of course. Live and learn, no one is perfect obviously. As for potential friends and awards, both are plentiful around here!

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. The OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.

Thanks,
Stanley

Yea that's exactly why I said that haha! And yes the rules are the rules so I get why they have to enforce them haha

Not particularly. I feel like I lost a lot of time staring at screens and need to focus on the real life more. Not saying I don't want to be here anymore, hell I'm writing this post because I want to continue my pumpkin collection!

Well I can certainly respect and appreciate that self awareness. I'm sure moving forward you'll be better about it all.

Thank you! I can imagine lots of people don't have any self awareness on the internet, and it must be quite a job moderating it lol.

Think now doing a bit of award collection would be fun.
