Omni uses Windows confirmed.

Also can't wait to use the ? to dunk on people!

Hey Stanley, you're a ????.

Fuck, if I get the Stanley award for shit posting on all his threads that would be a good juju moment.

Nah you don't want that one since it's called "Stanley Fan". We need the opposite, a "Stanley Hater" award.

That'd be the irony. Custom message like Stanley's biggest fan from way back or something equally as stupid.

Just wait for this sig to expire and go back to the "Fuck Stanley" hater.

That's fair. The irony of it could actually make it all the better lol. With how much passion you have for hating Stanley, you should have AI do you up a basic little graphic expressing such for your sig lmao.
