Thread: What Game Have You Played The Most This Year?

DemonAsylum - October 11, 2026, 10:21 pm

Have you guys been grinding any game in particular a lot this year? I haven't been playing a lot of different games this year so far, but I've put a decent amount of time into most of those that I have played. The top 2 would definitely be Apex Legends and OSRS (Old School RuneScape). One gives me my fix for shooters and more intense gameplay while of course OSRS is a lot more chill. It provides a nice balance for me.

At the beginning of the year I played OSRS quite a bit. I was grinding 2 accounts at the same time. But I got so caught up in life that I haven't been able to.

That's why I like games like UFC 6 and Madden where I can turn it on go into a match, play for 20 minutes and be done.

Yeah it's good to have those various options available and that you can enjoy in different ways. Sometimes you might want to grind a multiplayer shooter game for a few hours, sometimes you might want to play something chill with a show up on the side, sometimes you might want to play a game or 2 of something and hop off. It helps to have suitable options for whatever such scenarios you find yourself with.

I see a lot of people playing OSRS on HF, I've never tried this game tho. I know it's an old video game and I'm not that young (30+), but never played, I don't think it's popular in France.

I've played a lot of Rocket League, but I'm stuck at Platine 3, can't reach Diamond rank. I remember back in the days how different it was. Being Diamond was very common, but the difficulty increased over the years. And I've also see on social medias that the difficulty between European and American servers is not the same. It seems to be way more difficult on European servers. I should give a try to American servers.

Celestial on Marvel Rivals.

I also just got Assassin's Creed Odyssey and am looking forward to playing a game from Ubisoft for the first time in what must be 7 years or so.

You should give it a try one day. It's very easy to get into and if you end up enjoying yourself, prepare to be sucked into it heavily lol. I can't speak to specifically how popular it is in France obviously, but people from all over the world play the game so no doubt there are plenty from France included in that.

I get what you mean haha, but there is nothing wrong with that. Tons of people are right alongside you doing the same too. We play what we enjoy, simple as that.

Thing is, I don't really enjoy it. I only play it because that's all people wanna watch me play and good at it.
