Thread: What Is The Last Game That You Got 100% Achievement Completion For?

DemonAsylum - October 12, 2026, 12:20 am

Anyone here big on achievement hunting? I've always been a big fan of going for achievements and obviously the pinnacle of that with any given game is getting 100% completion for them. I was a lot more into it when I was younger, but I've still continued to go for them a fair amount over the years and more so when I'm playing a game that I'm really into. It has unfortunately been a few years since I've gotten a 100% completion for a game, but the last one I did so with was I believe Ghost of Tsushima. What about you?

Bastille - October 12, 2026, 12:23 am

I don't think I've ever completed a game at 100% of the achievements. The most close I am are :

- Elden Ring (missing like 3 achievements)
- Clair Obscur : Expedition 33 (missing like 5 or 6 achievements)

As far as 100% completion. I have only ever done that for a handful of games.

Halo 3, 4 and Reach. Madden 2009. Assassins Creed Black Flag (original).

Are you in the same boat as me when it comes to the Elden Ring Achievements? Just missing the alternate endings lol. I should have done the save cheese shit to get them all.

Yeah lol, 4 missing :

Elden Lord > Ending

Age of the starts > Ending

Legendary Armaments > Acquire all nine legendary weapons

Elden Ring > Obtain all trophies

I bought the first DLC but I'm stuck right now so I think it could be a good thing to go to NG+ game, level up a little bit, and comeback stronger. It would be an opportunity to unlock another ending and get one more achievement

Let me guess, the Legendary Armament that you're missing is the Dark Moon Greatsword from the Ranni questline?

I can't even tell ? last time I've played was like 2 years ago, I would need to go back on track and seek for all of them with a guide so I wouldn't miss one but I'm not motivated right now > <

Ah I see ? Well I said the one I did because the other 8 are more easily obtained by simply going to X location or killing X boss. The Dark Moon Greatsword however requires doing Ranni's questline which is fairly complicated and can also be failed/bricked in some ways. Probably doesn't help with the whole motivation to get you going back to check, does it? ?

Just watched a guide for the Darkmoon sword and I'm sure I've done the quests and I have it ! So I checked the list of the weapons to unlock the achievement, and I think I missed :

- Devourer's Scepter
- Bolt of Gransax

For the Devourer's Scepter I need to with NG+ I'm 99% sure, that's why I don't have it. And the second one doesn't ring a bell to me, I mean the design, I think I missed this one.

Ooo ok so good news and bad news then. Good news is if you have the Darkmoon, that's the most pain in the ass one taken care of. Bad news is that if you actually missed Bolt and you also killed Maliketh, you're bricked on that one and have to get it in NG. As for the Scepter, you should be able to get that one still. I don't believe it's one you can lose access to.

I need NG+ for both I think, maybe one day I'll be nostalgic and go with NG+ haha, congrats for the award by the way :)

Demon, is anyone ever completed with OSRS?

For Bolt, unfortunately yes. To get the Scepter though you just go kill Bernahl. I guess the latter doesn't matter too much though if you still have to deal with NG after for Bolt. Alternatively you could have someone give it to you online.

Thanks as well, it was a fun grind like always!

Don't think I have ever played for achievements.

Damn you've never once gotten all of the achievements in a game? I guess to be fair I don't know how big you are into gaming and how long that's been for. What all you play can be a big factor for making it more understandable never having done this too.

Last game I got 100% achievements for is probably Palworld when the new 1.0 update came out.

That strikes me as the kind of game that if I enjoyed it then I would get very much sucked into it and with part of that definitely being getting all of the achievements.

Might as well go for it, same with Aniimo.

Aniimo is free so definitely worth the shot.

I had a couple of friends that got Palworld and so I was leaning a fair amount towards picking it up because of that, but they only ended up playing it for a few days so that interest went away pretty quick lol. Oh well.

I am just about to get 100% on the latest Forza game so will just say that.

Has been fun for sure!
