Thread: What's Your Dream Holiday?

What's on your dream holiday list or buck list?

For me, Japan and South Korea are real contenders.

Also Australia and New Zealand are so beautiful.

And of course exploring more of the United states.

How about you?

I think going to China would be a experience beyond imagination.

I think it's Japan for me as well. I want to get mind-blown by the cultural differences xD
