I'll start: a cheap cable sleeve. It sounds boring, but my desk looks so much cleaner. I have a standing desk and this covers all the wires and makes the setup look much better. What's the best small purchase you've made?

Sounds dumb but I got this Shampoo, Conditioner, Body Wash dispenser that you put onto the wall in the shower and fill with the liquids. So nice because my shower doesn't have shelves.

Cable extensions so similar to your own
While it is not required, it sure makes things easier
