Thread: Would you rather: only eat your favourite meal forever, or never eat it again?

Fish - October 12, 2026, 3:23 am

I'd say never eat it again. That way it stays special and I don't get sick of it. Forever sounds amazing until week three. What's your pick, and what's the meal?

Deany - October 12, 2026, 3:25 am

Forever. I can't get sick of Chipotle lol.

Sift - October 12, 2026, 3:29 am

I'm an man of habit can eat the same meal everyday so my pick would be my favourite food.

You sure about that? Every single day and blehhhh. Have you gotten tired of any food in the past?

I dont know how you could do that. I get sick of eating the same food once a week for a year.... Let alone the same food forever....

Pizza everyday wouldn't be that bad, don't you think?

I would love pizza every day. Especially if you could switch up the toppings so you dont just get tired of having the exact same thing.

Maybe if you take something like pasta, you can chose a different pasta everyday.

Till you cant tolerate pasta anymore and are carb overloaded. But yeah, pasta has many different types so that could probably last a long time. Different types of pasta, sauces, mix ins, etc. Huge variety. I back that I'd probably eat my favorite meal forever tbh. I feel like I'd find a way to enjoy it even after a while lol.

Hern - October 12, 2026, 10:09 am

I would say to never eat it again
Having different food is needed and I would be so sick of that favorite food if it is ALL I could ever eat again

100% agree with that logic. You need different food or else you aren't going to want to eat anything after a while... you could find your new favourite food too

Oh_Well - October 14, 2026, 12:33 am

Never eat it again. I think I'd be sick of it after a month xD
