Mine probably is a skate game from Tony Hawk, or Super Mario.
What's yours?

Don't think I know this game.
Is it fun?

As far as I can remember, probably Twisted Metal 2.

Yeah, fantastic game back in the day.

I know there were games before it but I just lock into Street Fighter 2 when I think back on games. I think I might have played duck hunter before that. But Street Fighter 2 was the first game I was allowed to play whenever I wanted.

They have a movie about it coming out soon. I'm surprised you never heard of street fighter.

I heard about the movie, it's with 50 cent right?

As I recall its tetris on the game boy B&W

First game I had on my first "console"

First handheld game I played was probably Pokémon yellow, and the first pc game I ever played was Counter strike Source. Good times
