Thread: City Life vs Living Somewhere Quiet?

Michael - October 12, 2026, 8:33 am

What do you prefer?

I think I'd fit more into the city than somewhere quiet.

Although sometimes it can be fun to live somewhere quiet, I'd think I'd miss the city life.

I'm a city person.

City is always more fun than somewhere quiet, no?

Yea I agree with that statement.

No I want to be near all the stores and food. Chipotle particularly.

You keep talking about Chipotle.

Oh_Well - October 12, 2026, 9:15 am

I like having a city near so I can do stuff, but I don't like living in one. Countryside is the best for me

So the best of both worlds.

If Chipotle would cease to exist you would probably die.

Would prefer remote work and to live away from the city if possible

Maybe close to the sea?

City life is nice for a little bit, but the suburbs are also really nice. Its quieter, and makes going out to the city an event

Depending where the suburbs are located from downtown, this could be the best answer haha.

Low key city life sucks imo. I enjoy the country side as its a lot more peaceful and I have to say I cant stand city life anymore.

Depending on what you like, the busy or the quiet life.

Yeah I get that.
Seems fair though, but maybe if you're younger you like city life more.

For me a mix is good, between city and quiet life.

City is so hustle and. bustle. Cant relax there. Vs suburbs are more quiet and chill

Yeah that's true.
But got to be close to the city though.

I've tried both quiet life and the city life and the city life is preferred.

I prefer city life because everything is close by.

I enjoy having shops, restaurants, and entertainment nearby.
