Thread: What Anime are you looking forward to releasing?

oRequiem - October 12, 2026, 1:29 pm

Which anime are you most excited for?

I'm personally most excited for the Solo Leveling Season 3 movie.

Movies kinda worry me since it logically is less content, but we'll see.

That's why I prefer a full Season over movies.

I never saw One Piece, I don't want animes that have that many episodes even though I watched Naruto lol.
