Thread: Anyone Excited for MW4/DMZ?

DMZ looks pretty interesting, early access comes out at 1pm EST on October 20th.
Campaign comes out on the 16th and the Launch of Multiplayer is the 23rd I believe.

Anyone excited?

I am looking forward to this one. I plan to order the game this week. This will be the first time I have bought COD in years. I kinda gave up on the game for a while, then I played the beta for MW4 back in August and really enjoyed it.

They should have made 'COD: VIETNAM' after MW3 and let the franchise die.

Now it's just cartoon battle-pass halo-jump for man-children.

Man, I couldn't even like the beta.

I think it's because I took a break for the past so many years from the game.

Possibly, DMZ is on the 20th so that's going to be interesting.
