Thread: Favorite Place to take a Date

What's your favorite place to take a date to and why?

I haven't gone on a date in a long time, but it was always the movie theaters. There's just something really vibey about that.

Of course, sneaking candy in ?

Straight into the bedroom how I met my wife.

I used to do Chilis or movies. There wasn't much in my town at the time.

My wife and I on our first date I took her to Busch Gardens, followed by the movie theater, then pizza hut. I don't remember the reason why we chose pizza. I think it was one of the only places open that late that wasn't fast food.

Yeah, can't go wrong with that. It would be rough for me since I never drink coffee. It's not like I can't, just never really do.

Honestly, a nice walk on the beach can never go wrong.

My favorite date spot is a small Italian restaurant.
I love the food and the atmosphere.
