The OG convo will come back. Due to the change of servers and updating the site, the old convo system was using old functions where, with all the updated functions, the convo breaks completely. The system has a temp system using chatwe right now, but the convo system will be back once it's all remade.

Once it returns I know it will be great since its being remade to a point where it will be complete this time where as the old version wasnt 100% understood and was easy to break.

Same. It'll be back soon. Omni mentioned yesterday that he was working on the fix for it.
