I really want to get in to this, but I think it won't be for me.
How was it?

Yes definetly.
The newer one's, I don't really enjoy.

I watched The Sopranos many years back I think it was 2006 or 2007. It was around the end of the series. I absolutely thought the world of the show back then. I just started rewatching it. I have forgotten 99% of it so it's been nice watching it again
