Thread: What's the nicest thing a stranger has ever done for you?

Yanix - October 14, 2026, 5:45 am

I remember this one time I was buying groceries and didn't bring enough cash with me since I was planning to pay with my card. Unfortunately, when I got to the cashier, their card payment system was offline. Talk about bad timing lol.?

I was already thinking about which items to put back when the lady behind me offered to cover the amount I was short on. I was a bit embarrassed at first, especially with people waiting in line, but she insisted it was fine.

It wasn't a huge amount, but I really appreciated her kindness. I thanked her a few times and honestly, I still remember that lady even though I never got her name.

Given me a ride broken down on the side of the road.

It's always nice when someone goes out of their way to help a stranger, especially when you need it most.?

A random girl used her mini fan on me in the middle of a HOT rave.

Wow that was really sweet of her! ?

I bet that little fan felt like a lifesaver in the middle of all that heat!

It took me a moment to recall a good incident.

It was when I was in NYC on the subway and I was being attacked and the conducted came in and stopped it.

Oh and another time I was also being robbed and a stranger came in to help me fight off a guy with a box cutter.

Strangers potentially saved my life.

Whoa, those must have been some terrifying experiences!

Praise God! I'm really glad those strangers stepped in and helped you when you needed it most.

It takes real courage to help someone in danger, especially when their own safety is at risk.

Good to know there are still people like that in this world!

I was in my young 20's. NYC was filled with danger for a young White man. Every attack against me was racially motivated. I wasn't terrified either. I always fought back. Adrenaline rush.

Sounds like you went through some really rough experiences back then ?

Somehow, it's good that you were able to stand up for yourself, but still, those situations could have ended badly.

Now I'm wondering if that girl was as hot as the rave itself! ?

Cat-sitting for free while I was away. It was the only time I travelled completely stress-free.

itself! ?

Oh absolutely but I was busy having fun so wasn't trying to flirt

Oh yeah, it's better to just enjoy the moment rather than worry about flirting. Besides, the best connections often happen when you're not even trying!

For sure, I don't get people who go to these events just to desperately seek a one night stand or something

Yep, I think it's much better to just enjoy the event, have fun with friends and make some good memories. If you happen to meet someone special along the way, that's just a bonus!

One day I will find my soulmate at a rave!

haha you never know brotha ? Sometimes love comes when you least expect it and a rave might just be the perfect place to meet someone who shares your passion for music and having fun.

Hopefully, you'll find your soulmate on the dance floor someday! ?

Sadly the rule is ---> No donation begging or fundraising threads.
This includes requests for donations, loans, investors, or financial assistance of any kind.

It's nice to know there are still kind strangers willing to help without expecting anything in return.
Glad everything turned out well, and you got a free ride out of it too!
