Thread: Would you rather have the ability to pause time for one hour daily or rewind time by

I'd probably go with rewinding time by ten minutes.

There have been times when I've said something out of frustration, especially after a long and stressful day and ended up regretting it a few minutes later. Sometimes I wish I could just take those words back and handle things a little better.

It would also be nice to fix those small mistakes we make every day before they turn into bigger problems. I know ten minutes doesn't sound like much, but sometimes that's all you need to make a better decision.

Pausing time for an hour sounds great too, but I think being able to undo something I regret would mean more to me.

What about you, which one would you choose and what would you use it for?

I could do some crazy things with time being paused

Sounds like that one movie "click" where he has a remote and can pause time or rewind.

I would rewind for sure. I can easily avoid any mistakes then or even stop entire large issues from happening if I know they are coming.
