Thread: Can the eggs be brought back?

Hello everyone!

I was wondering if it would be possible to bring the eggs back to the forum, but in a different form.

When we get one by chance, we can open it to receive bytes, awards, or other rewards, depending on what the forum decides.

Of course, the algorithm or rules should be designed so that they appear in high-quality posts and good threads, rather than in spam posts or low-quality content.

I like this idea too. I don't know about awards because that could potentially bloat what is already there, but I could see bytes as being a reward.

Great idea I have to agree as well with the others, I just don't wanna have them bloating up my awards lol, I remember always being annoyed by it.

Eggs were a pretty cool idea at the time to me!

I've gotten back into Pokemon Go and I'm all for the egg idea!

Additionally I'd like to see an HF Battlepass that you buy with bytes.

Making sure this stays visible as I enjoyed eggs and the market for them.
