Thread: Best no KYC option for converting Monero for Bitcoin?

tg3366 - October 18, 2026, 9:09 pm

Hello, I am looking for an option to convert my Monero to Bitcoin with no KYC, Options that really do not ask for KYC or are advertised as no KYC but mid process they keep my funds and ask for KYC.

StealthEx ? Have you tried looking around or thought you would ask first Highly recommend <https://tracador.app/> but dont do stupid amounts because they use third party swaps.

Also look at the side when doing on how long it takes some require only 1-2 confirmations and take 10mins max others can take an hour.

I usually do less than 1k at a time.

Can vouch for trocador. Personally used it for like 20+ times till now max up to 2K for single exchange.

They provide almost instant support over Telegram in case there are any delays or you have any queries.

Just make sure to select the proper exchange from the given options. Always go for any exchange graded "A" as per their rating.

Avoid choosing Swapuz as they need like 60 confirms for Monero transactions but apart from that, I have never had any issues.
